

Please do not stop regulating BellSouth's interaction with smaller local ISPs. I believe we should do everything to keep smaller, local companies viable. If the big bells are unregulated, then they could ultimately raise rates, or stop selling DSL to smaller ISPs. I value the fact I can choose smaller, local companies over huge corporation.

Sincerely,
David Smeeth